

LIST OF PHOTOGRAPHS

Cover

William John Sutton thanks to Basil Fox

Chapter One:

Westhouse, thanks to Sedbergh Historian

Syke Fold, thanks to Sedbergh Historian

Rigg End, Jan Bridget

John Sill Monument, Jan Bridget

Sill Family Monument, Jan Bridget

Chapter Three:

Whernside Manor, Jan Bridget

Old Grammar School, Dent, Jan Bridget

Adam Sedgwick, Painting by Thomas Phillips, R.A.

St Andrews, Dent, Jan Bridget

Map of Kincardine, thanks to Municipality of Kincardine

Williamsburgh School Sign, Jan Bridget

Chapter Four

William Sutton, Sarah Keyworth thanks to Keith Sutton

The first county jail and sheriff's office, Brant, from Laura M.

Gateman, editor, The History of the Township of Brant, 1854-1979, 1979.

Walkerton Court House, Canadian Illustrated News, 16th

December 1871 Reproduced from Library and Archives

Canada's website: Canadian Illustrated News, 1869-1883.

Bruce County Jail, © Jan Bridget

William Sutton, Thanks to Walker House, Kincardine.

Chapter Five

Sutton Children, thanks to Keith Sutton
Trinity College, Port Hope, public domain
Sibley College of Mechanical Arts, public domain
<http://www.mae.cornell.edu/about/briefhistory.cfm>
Advert from The Colonist.

Chapter Six

Sutton mill at Snug Creek, c. 1880, Hughitt Family Records
via Neil Andrew Dirom
Logging with oxon near March's farm, from Kaatza, The Chronicles of Cowichan Lake by John F.T. Saywell, 1967.

Chapter Seven

Sutton Mill, c. 1889; thanks to the Wright-Hughitt Family.
Hughitt and McIntyre Mill, c. 1891; thanks to the Wright-Hughitt Family.
Barque, Colorado, at the Hughitt McIntyre Mill, c. 1891;
thanks to the Wright-Hughitt Family.

Chapter Eight

-

Chapter Nine

Image East Ucluelet, or Port Albion; Sutton Mill, courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.
Sutton Lumber and Trading Company, thanks to Ken Gibson.
Image Captain Binns and James Sutton, Courtesy of Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Chapter Ten

Helen Annie Fox thanks to Basil Fox.

Fox Family thanks to Basil Fox.

135 Michigan Street. © Victoria Heritage Foundation.

Chapter Eleven

Michigan School of Mines, Faculty, 1896, public domain.

Michigan School of Mines, students, 1898, public domain.

Map of Rossland Claims,

https://archive.org/details/cihm\_93515

Image Noble Five Concentrator and Aerial Tramway, courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Image Camp McKinney, courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Chapter Twelve

Will and Annie thanks to Basil Fox.

Sphalerite, Thanks to Pacific Museum of Earth.

Pacific Museum of Earth, from their website:

<http://pme.ubc.ca/exhibits/minerals/>

Chapter Thirteen

Image Queen Charlotte Cumshewa, courtesy of the Royal BC
Museum and Archives.

Image Pillar Rock, north shore of Graham Island, courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Image Skeena River, courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Image Ready for a journey on horseback, Hazelton, courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Image Indian Graveyard, Hazelton, courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Image Ahwilgate Village near Hazelton, B.C. courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Image Kitwanga Indian Village, Skeena River, courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Panorama from the south end of Gitwangak Village, c. 1899, which appears in The Totem Poles and Monuments of Gitwangak Village, George F. MacDonald.

Gitwangak, Emily Carr, Art Gallery of Ontario.

Image Hartley Bay Indian Village, northern coast of B.C. courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Chapter Fourteen

Part of frontispiece for Vancouver Island, British Columbia, Canada, The Treasure Island, public domain.

Chapter Fifteen

Image Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, First Executive Committee, courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Will and Annie's Grave, Ross Bay Cemetery, thanks to Leona Taylor.

